Northeast Corner Sixth and Main Streets, Kansas City, U. S. A.

MIDWAY HUMMER

THE PRINCIPAL FEATURE DECIDED UPON BY KARNIVAL KREWE.

SPECIAL MEETING YESTERDAY

STREETS OF INDIA AND CAIRO WILL BE CHIEF ATTRACTIONS.

In Addition There Will Be Trained Wild Animals, Hindoo, Mexican, Porto Rican and Japanese Theaters and Other Novelties.

The Karnival Krewe held a special meeting yesterday afternoon at headquarters, at which the principal features of the Midway at the coming street fair were decided upon. President Eaton and Vice President Lehtman, the committee appointed by the Krewe to visit Cleveland in the interest of the fair, made their report and submitted propositions from managers of midway attractions. These propositions were accepted by the directors and the acceptance was wired last night.

The Streets of Cairo and Midway will be an exact reproduction of that shown at the Omaha exposition. The Midway will consist, in addition to the Streets of India and Streets of Cairo, of Shiek Habeeb Katool and his "Monster Oriental Congress," complete in every detail; over thirty performers; Turks, Arabs, Egyptians and Bedouins, gun spinners, sword fighters and acrobats, in pastimes, games and sports of the Oriental races; "Holy Moses," elephant and camel riding; quaint Egyptian burlesques for the children. Other features will be: The "Francis" Ferrari Anglo-American Trained Wild Animal Show—The greatest collection of trained wild animals ever exhibited in the United States. Dens of lions, pumas, leopards. The original untamable Wallace, the boxing kangaroo, the couch-coach dancing bear, Professor De-Kino, the lion king; Mme. Paulina De Vere, the lion queen; gorgeous gilded fronts; marvelous mechanical bands and orchestras.

Mexican and Porto Rican Theater—The beautiful "Letepla," the famous dancer from Ponca, Puerto Rico; Senor Zai-Zam, juggler and knife thrower; Ala Zada, Porto Rican mystifier; Senor and Senora Verrell, necromancers; the famous Porto Rican quartette.

The Hindoo Theater—"Mahamed," the famous Hindoo fakir; the wonderful and mystifying Hindoo night and morning.

Indian Village and Wild West—A tribe of genuine Winnebago Sioux Indians, squaws and papposes; basket and bead working, shooting, riding, etc.

Japanese Theater—"Oshimoto's" famous troupe of Japanese acrobats and equilibristes from Tokyo; balancing, perch pole climbing, juggling.

The Dog and Goat Show—Colonel Shult's challenge $25.00 troupe of Dane and Bismarck dogs, the greatest performing dogs in the world. Professor Gilbert and his herd of trained mountain goats, Madame Yucca, the strongest woman in the world, in marvelous exhibitions of strength. Every act a sensation.

The German Village—Glimpses of the Fatherland. The renowned Waldorf-Astoria Tyrolean Quintette, in their musical mountain melodies. Professor A. H. Knoll and Miss Mary McNeil, the peerless cornet soloists. Leon and Adeline, trans-Atlantic jugglers; Madame Gerretta and her trained cockatoos. A superb ladies' orchestra.

Last but not least should be mentioned that the babies are going to be provided for free of charge. The "baby jumper," the most wonderful baby tender ever known, will be provided. Once the baby is introduced to the swing, there is no more attention needed, though nurses will be in attendance.

Applications for space by local manufacturers are coming quite satisfactorily, a number being reported yesterday, though the regular report will not be in for a day or two.

What a Religious Paper Says.
The Philadelphia Presbyterian of July 26 has the following to say of street fairs: "The street fair is coming into fashion in the West. It migrates from city to city, dragging indescribable abominations in its train. A row of temporary sheds is built on either side of a street for quite a distance, with gates at either end. These booths are rented out to merchants and others for display of goods and advertisement. Bands are engaged, and all noises encouraged. Crowds pour in from the regions adjacent. The fair itself is innocent, but the surroundings are not."

ACCEPTED DESIGN FOR KARNIVAL KREWE POSTER.

HE FIGHTS FOR WEEDS

DEMURRER IN JUDGE FIELD'S INJUNCTION SUIT OVERRULED.

Declares That the Ordinance is Unconstitutional, Because It Does Not Specifically Prohibit Weeds Shall Be Destroyed.

A demurrer in his weed-cutting injunction suit was overruled by Judge R. H. Field by Judge John W. Henry yesterday. The case will be tried before Judge Henry.

ACCEPTED DESIGN FOR KARNIVAL KREWE POSTER.

ASSESSOR HOLMES IS WAITING.

He Will Not Take Charge of the Office Until He Receives His Commission.

George Holmes, the newly appointed county assessor, has not put in an appearance at the court house since his appointment. He is waiting for his commission before entering the office. It will probably reach him Monday, when he will qualify and be sworn in.

Meanwhile the deputies in the office are wondering whether they will be retained and whether they will receive pay for the time that has elapsed since the death of Assessor Bower, July 28. The county court has intimated that they will be paid, although every position in the office was legally vacated by Mr. Bower's death.

TO ENJOIN A WIFE BEATER.

Judge Henry Says It Is Not the Province of the Courts—Go to the Police About It.

Mrs. Nellie Uhl applied to Judge Henry yesterday for an injunction to restrain Edward Uhl, her husband, from beating her. She has sued him for divorce.

Her lawyer, Mr. Uhl's lawyer, that the courts could not enjoin a man from beating his wife. "Your proper remedy," said the judge, "is to go to the police and have him arrested. If guilty he will be fined by the police court and sent to the workhouse."

Attached Slot Machines.
Twenty-five cigar slot machines in rooms 69 and 96 Nelson building have been attached by the Brown Book and Stationery Company. It is claimed by this firm that H. W. Coleman owes it $14.

Coleman, who represented a slot machine company, of Alton, Ill., came to Kansas City six weeks ago. He sold partnerships in his business to five different men for $300 to $500. Monday he left town and since then his office has been locked. He left no word as to where he was going or when he would return.

West Terrace Park Instructions.
Lawyers representing West Terrace park property owners spent an hour or more yesterday discussing instructions with Judge Gibson. No "instructions" were agreed upon.

The testimony is practically all in, but it will be several weeks before a verdict can be returned. Judge Gibson will give the instructions to the jury Tuesday.

Court Briefs.
Judge Gibson has appointed P. H. Madden receiver of the East Kansas City Land Company.

A deed of trust for $19,000, made by J. Z. Taylor and wife to the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company, was filed in the recorder's office yesterday.

C. E. Young, sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary for arson, attempted to give bond in the criminal court yesterday, but failed. He has taken an appeal to the supreme court.

Pennsylvania Anthracite Coal.
We are selling Pennsylvania anthracite coal at $5.00 per ton, delivered. Now is the time to buy your anthracite coal to save money. Central Coal & Coke Company, Keith & Perry building.

Low Rates to Clinton and Springfield.
On August 15 the Memphis Route (K. C. F. S. & M. R. R.) will sell round trip tickets to Clinton, Ark., and Springfield, Mo., for $1.00. The return limit August 16, and for morning train of August 19 Kansas City to Springfield at $1.00, return limit fifteen days.

ONE OF TWENTY-SEVEN

SOLITARY DESCENDANT OF HAM IN POLICE COURT YESTERDAY.

Kansas City Negroes Made a Good Record—Not One Offender Sent to the Workhouse, a Very Rare State of Affairs.

Out of twenty-seven offenders who appeared before Justice Spitz, only one was a negro, and not a single person was sent to the workhouse. For the first time in many months it wasn't necessary for Cash Anderson's screen-covered vehicle to make a trip from the workhouse to the police station.

The only negro offender who appeared in court was James Johnson. He was arrested on a charge of disturbing the peace of Lena Wilson, of 1214 Washington street, and was fined $25. Johnson had been in court before, and his past record was offered in evidence against him. He was arrested and fined last March for beating his wife, and was given hours to get out of town. He failed to go, however, and when he appeared in court yesterday morning Justice Spitz gave him one more chance. He promised to bid adieu to Kansas City forever before the setting of another sun, and he was released.

Ed Ryan and Albert Horner are not very desirable citizens. Justice Spitz told them that the town could prosper without their presence. After they had been fined $100 each for vagrancy, they promised to get out of town as fast as a freight train could carry them, and they were given stays of execution.

Edward Wilson, a cripple, who claimed to have been injured in a mine explosion at Leadville several years ago, was begging on the street. Justice Spitz gave him an hour to leave the city.

Charles Kennedy, William Gregg, Harry Moore, Robert Rigby and L. Weideman, boys, whose ages range from 14 to 15 years, were in court to answer to a charge of gambling. The boys live in Westport, and a few nights ago they sneaked into a lumber yard in that suburb and indulged in a game of "craps" by candle light. Sergeant Kennedy surprised the boys while the game was in progress by arresting them all. In the police court yesterday morning the cases against them were dismissed on their promise not to do so any more.

Kansas Farmers Fall Out.
D. C. Rich and J. H. Foore are farmers who live in Johnson county, Kas. Both of them came to town Friday night with a wagonload of produce so as to be on the market early yesterday morning. Farmer Rich went to town a badge of the Old Settlers' Association of Johnson county. Foore met him, and naturally enough they fell to talking about the days when they fought rebels and chased buffalo over the prairies of Johnson county. Rich must have told the biggest yarns about how he slaughtered Indians and buffalo for Farmer Foore questioned his right to wear a badge of the Old Settlers' Association. They quarreled and tried to settle their differences with their fists. They were arrested by Officer Crowley on a charge of disorderly conduct, and in the police court yesterday morning Justice Spitz fined them $1 each, with the remark that they should learn to settle their disputes at home.

Kirk Oldham, who engaged in a knock-down-and-drag-out fight with Bert and Clint Newell in front of Frank Jones' saloon Friday night, forfeited a cash bond of $4. The case against the Newells was dismissed.

For Alleged Fraud.
P. P. Fishering was arrested yesterday by Officers John Quinn and P. J. Murphy on a state warrant issued by Justice Ross charging him with obtaining $35 from an old negro named Mrs. J. Murray by fraud. The latter's husband was a union soldier during the war of the rebellion and about a year ago, after his death, she

IS STILL AT LARGE.

Authorities Fail to Get Any Clue to the Negro Who Attempted to Assault Miss Perkins.

The authorities of Wyandotte county and also a number of the citizens are still out searching for the negro who attempted a criminal assault on Miss Edna Perkins, of Turner, Kas., Thursday afternoon. Thus far, however, they have been unsuccessful and it is now feared that the fellow has left this part of the country.

Yesterday a negro known as "Dina" was arrested by the police and taken to the city hall. A crowd followed the officers, but no hostile demonstration was made. When Miss Perkins and her father arrived and stated positively that he was not the man he was released and allowed to go his way. He is now being sought by the police as far as could be learned no new clues were found which might lead to the negro's arrest.

WILL SOON BE HERE.
Spanish Cannon Will Be Shipped From Governor's Island as Soon as Possible.

Just as soon as it can be placed on the cars, the big Spanish cannon loaned Kansas City by the war department will start on its way West. Yesterday Mayor Jones received a letter from Brigadier General S. A. Bunting, chief ordnance officer, notifying him that the gun for this city had been selected and the commanding officer of the Ordnance Department at Fort Mifflin, Pa., was to ship it to the mayor.

In response to this Mayor Jones wrote the officer in command at the island informing him of the communication from General Bunting, and asking him to ship the gun at once at the city's expense. He also inclosed a receipt acknowledging the loan to the city of the cannon.

DONATION FOR SUFFERERS.
A Woman in Philadelphia Signaling Herself "A Heavy Heart" Sends $10 to Mayor Jones.

Mayor Jones was in receipt of a peculiar communication yesterday that came from Philadelphia. Among his letters was a square, light blue envelope containing a sheet of note paper of the same tint. Folded in the letter was a $10 bill. Written in a neat feminine hand was the following: "I am a sufferer from the high water and oblige."

Half of the money will be sent to Mayor Noyes, of Kirksville, and half to the mayor of Vaco, Tex., from where the funds for the flood sufferers are distributed.

Woodmen to Organize.
On next Thursday evening there will be a meeting of Modern Woodmen in their hall at 1015 Grand avenue for the purpose of effecting a local organization for the purpose of raising funds, by assessments, to take their members to the St. Paul head camp meeting in 1901. It is expected a permanent organization will be had at this meeting, and members of all the city camps interested in the matter are invited to be present. Captain Charles H. Bueker, of Midland, Kan., is the speaker of the idea, and says that he expects to take at least 1,000 Kansas City woodmen to the twin city of the lakes in 1901.

YOUNG GIRL RUN OVER

EMMA REIDER KNOCKED DOWN BY A RECKLESS DRIVER.

Saloonkeeper William Smith Placed Under Arrest for the Act—Drove Past the Junction at a High Rate of Speed.

Emma Reider, a 12-year-old girl who lives with her parents at 808 Jefferson street, was run over and seriously injured at 10 o'clock last night by a saloonkeeper named Will Smith. The accident occurred near the Junction and was witnessed by a large number of people. The little girl started to cross Main street from the east to west side of the street, when Smith drove north at a reckless rate of speed. Several persons who witnessed the accident say that he urged his horse almost into a gallop as he crossed the network of tracks at the Junction. The little girl was knocked down by the front wheels of the vehicle and was cut and bruised on the limbs and her left arm. She did not fall under the wheels and was not struck by the hoofs of the horse attached to the buggy, the blow she received by being struck by the wheels serving to throw her away from the buggy. She was taken to police headquarters and was attended by Dr. Marahan.

Smith was arrested by Officers Drivetta and Whalen and gave bond for his appearance in the police court tomorrow morning. He was indignant over his arrest and the station threatening to make it warm for the officers who placed him under arrest. A young woman was with him at the station, and she said she was a saloonkeeper. Smith runs a saloon at Eighteenth and Troost avenues.

WANT 5-CENT FARE.
Sheffield Citizens Meet—Westport People Insist on Franchise Held Up Being Granted.

A meeting of the residents of Sheffield was held last night in order to register a demand for a 5-cent fare from that suburb to the heart of the city. Before the meeting adjourned a committee consisting of W. C. Brook, R. L. Smith, S. Y. High and R. Calligan was appointed to wait on the council and present the demands of the residents of that part of the city.

In juxtaposition to this meeting was one held at Esslinger's wine garden, near Westport, at nearly the same hour, at which those present registered a kick against the delay in the council in passing the ordinance granting to the Metropolitan Street Railway Company the right to extend its Summit street line. Those present claimed that Councilman Pendergast was holding up the franchise in order to force the company to grant a 5-cent fare from Sheffield.
